

ITLearn360 :-<http://www.itlearn360.com/>

What to test?

- Check if the search box is present or not.
- Does the search box shows search page without any search query?
- What does search page shows if you enter nothing in search box and hit enter or press finder icon?
- Check the characters allowed to be entered into the search box.
- Does the search box presents auto suggestions when the query is being typed?
- Does the search box allows searching with incorrect spellings?
- Check login form is available
- Login text boxes should be editable
- Check login button is present and clickable
- Validation message should be shown when special characters are entered in the username field, or when invalid username and/or password is entered or the fields are left blank
- Check lost password option allows to reset password
- All mandatory fields are highlighted in registration form
- Check error message is displayed if any of mandatory field is skipped
- Check on every page especially on registration page back button is given
- All buttons should be clickable and are of same colour and font size
- Login credentials, especially password, should be stored in database in encrypted format
- After logout if user clicks on back button user should not be able to login within same session, it should redirect to login page
- Verify there is no dead page or invalid redirects.
- First check all the validations on each field.
- For every course preview videos is given
- Check Training highlights are shown at home page
- Check need help/support is displayed over each page
- Check Font type and size

- Minimum and Maximum lengths should be set for all the text boxes
- Scroll bar should be given
- New training highlights should be given
- Video presentation of itlearn360 is given
- List of popular certifications is given at home page
- At bottom Student reviews should be given
- Direct link for self paced courses is given with respective price
- "Check all links at top Menu

Blog

Live Project Solutions

Self Paced Courses

Upcoming Online Classes

ContactUs"

- Check all courses drop down list is showing complete list of course and allows to select any course
- Verify that content on certificates of each course is correct
- Check with every course student feedback is given with rating
- Course Curriculum is available for all the courses
- Verify that No course is empty